

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Carrie Howe was born October 18, 1913; and,

Whereas, Carrie married Don Howe on February 15, 1935, and to this union five children were born; and,

Whereas, Carrie celebrates life by driving to mass every morning, by having lunch at the local nutrition center, and by playing cards and visiting with friends in the afternoons; and,

Whereas, Carrie will observe her 95th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

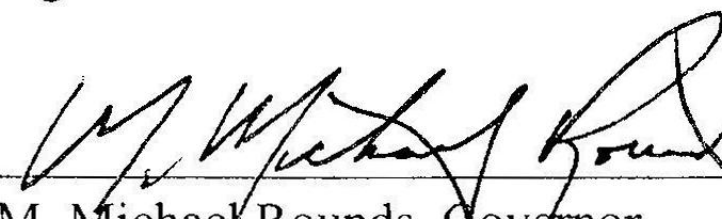

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 18, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join all her friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
